The business advisory firm you employ is as good as the people who serve you

We place high value in maximising human potential and proactive transformation. Our goal is to help organisations address their most vital business challenges by delivering solutions that allow our clients to re-define and lead their markets.

We have a team comprising of outstanding individuals who collectively bring many years of international and local appropriate experience, couple with technical skills, knowledge, authority, dedication and most of all, commitment to be pro-active management advisors to our clients.

FOCUSED ON SUSTAINABILITY

Making a real and lasting contribution to the nation's economic and social well-being

Some of the factors that differentiate us:

Management

The executive management of NBAS collectively have over 20 years experience in diverse spheres of business. Besides being qualified black woman Chartered Accountants, they have complementary skills and expertise.

Skills and Training

Our staff members obtain expert training from some of the established auditing firms, which also assist us with assignments that require special technical expertise that we do not possess. This contributes to capacity building, transfer of skills and promotion of the transformation process.

Seamless, Multi-disciplinary Services

With our knowledge of business as professionals, entrepreneurs and leaders, we will support our clients to grow and contribute immensely towards both their goals and continued success by providing specialised and appropriate multi-disciplinary management advisory services.

Commitment to Service Excellence

Our clients are expected to be vocal about any substandard performance. We further monitor our clients' expectation of quality and professional service by conducting quality assurance reviews on all assignments performed. This ensure that we are accountable to our clients and that we add value to their people and their businesses.

Procurement

NBAS is committed to embracing, encouraging and nurturing small and medium enterprises (SMME's) by proactively locating potential BEE suppliers and giving them the basic support that will enable them to pitch for business on a competitive commercial footing.

AS PARTNERS IN THIS BEE DRIVE

We help our clients and partners fulfil their dreams of becoming owners and stakeholders who can reap the benefits of the country's trading platform

Everything we do starts with your business objectives. This opens up our strategic and creative thinking to a wider range of solutions while keeping our focus on business details.
